Let’s Talk | A Library Settlement Partnership Program

Date and Time: Wednesday, February 10 07:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m.
Interested in learning how to reach your career goals? Want to learn new types of art? Make new friends and get volunteer hours? Then join Let's Talk!

Let's Talk is a virtual program for immigrant, newcomer, and refugee youth ages 14-21. This is a partnership program with the KW Multicultural Centre that is focused on helping you figure out your career goals and supporting you in exploring these ideas by using art activities (e.g. art, drama, music, etc.). In this program you will have the opportunity to connect with career mentors, ask them questions, and learn more about the career you are interested in. Let's Talk can also help you figure out your career goals if you are not sure which career you want to pursue.

Benefits of this program:

- Learn how to reach your career/education goals and/or figure out what careers you may be interested in
- Get volunteer hours!
- Meet career mentors in your field of interest (e.g. medical, engineering, fashion, etc.)!
- Certificate at the end of program to put on resume!
- Win gift cards!
- Learn new types of art (e.g. visual art, drama, music, etc.)!
- Make new friends and connect with others!
- Practice English!
- Get to know the community and learn about community resources!

This program requires registration; register through google forms.

Virtual Volunteering Workshop

Date and Time: Thursday, February 11 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m.

Event Location:

From February to April, the City of Waterloo will connect neighbours through a virtual Neighbourhood Workshop Series.

The workshop series is courtesy of feedback received during Waterloo’s successful 2020 virtual Neighbourhood Summit. Participants at the summit expressed interest in building their skills in conflict resolution, inclusivity and strengthening communication skills to learn and share with neighbours across the city. Staff have planned five workshops aimed at empowering people to continue contributing to the neighbourliness of their area of the city.

The workshops will engage neighbours in discussions and are facilitated by local community leaders.

Anybody in the community can attend. The workshops are free and registration is required on Eventbrite.

For more information about neighbourhoods, including our Block Connector program, the Neighbourhood Matching Fund, mini grants, neighbourhood associations and more, please visit waterloo.ca/neighbourhoods
